

National Environmental Law Association (NELA) Recruitment of National Board Members

We are currently looking for new Board Members to join our team! If you are passionate about the role of law and policy in regulating and managing the Australian environment, we invite you to apply for a position as a volunteer Board Member.

NELA is Australia's premier national environmental law association. You can see more information on NELA's objectives, history and actions at our website here.

The current Board is made up of members from environmental law private practice, academics, eNGOs, and government. We currently have 13 Board Members with 4 retiring at our next AGM later this year.

Our current partners are LotSearch, Clayton Utz, UNSW, Ashurst, KWM, NRF, and McCullough Robertson. We are also affiliated through MOUs with EIANZ, IUCN, ARIEL, and AELERT. We are looking forward to continuing to build our partnerships, affiliations and membership base with a re-energised Board for 2025.

We have a number of portfolios. We ask each Board Member to be a member of two. The current portfolios are:

1. Publications, Submissions and Advocacy
2. ESG and Sustainability
3. Education
4. Membership, Partnerships and Personnel
5. Communications, Marketing and Website
6. Secretariat, Governance and Treasury
7. Events

At NELA we are dedicated to promoting an environment of inclusivity. Each volunteer will be a key member of their respective Portfolios and gain valuable experience and exposure in Australia's peak body focused on advancing environmental law.

You must be a member of NELA, or wish to become a member of NELA, to apply.

Please note that for all NELA volunteer positions, applicants should reside in Australia.

If you are interested in joining the NELA Board, please provide a CV and short cover letter to vicepresident@nela.org.au by Sunday 15 September 2024.

Successful applicants will be invited to interview in the week of 16 September 2024.
